President Wilson Plans Itinerary to the Pacific Coast

White House Exec- utive Will Pass By Los Angeles.

To Come via Panama Canal and Will Anchor Only at San Diego and San Francisco.

President Wilson has planned his itinerary to the Pacific coast, and will touch the buttons that will start the wheels of the Panama-Pacific and San Diego expositions. The President will arrive in San Diego March 19, according to schedule and will come via the Panama Canal.

Three days will be spent in San Diego, after formally opening the great waterway that divides North and South America.

The President will come through the canal at the head of a fleet of 44 warships, 27 of them sent by foreign nations, and flying the Stars and Stripes. He will be on board the famous Oregon, the battleship that made the record-breaking trip around the Horn in 1898, and played an important part in the Spanish-American war.

President Wilson will skip Los Angeles, going direct from San Diego to San Francisco, where a stop of four days will be made. Los Angeles, being an inland town 25 miles from the coast, with no harbor, loses out.

The President will not change his itinerary. The above is final, and San Francisco and the bay cities will have record-breaking crowds to honor the popular executive of the United States.

Charles M. Belshaw, of Antioch, who was a candidate for Governor in the primaries, has returned from an extended eastern trip.

Francis J. Heney Says Oakland Is Rotten With Corruption and Graft

Francis J. Heney, who ran second in the race for a seat in the U. S. Senate, was the drawing card last Friday night at Piedmont Pavilion, Oakland, at a mass meeting called by the Citizens' Committee of One Hundred. It is estimated that the house contained 5000 persons and that 4000 were turned away. All were eager to hear what Heney would say about Oakland graft, and Heney surely did not mince things. He termed Boss Mike Kelly the arch grafter who was equalled only by Abe Ruef. Heney had the crowd going on several occasions, when they would rise on their feet and cheer him with deafening applause. He said that Kelly practically named all the employees in most of the offices. He made Hynes district attorney and Horner county assessor. He said that is the reason the corporations are satisfied with their assessments, and why the tax rate is sky high for the common people. "If assessments were properly made your tax rate would fall one-third," said Heney. This brought the crowd to its feet again, and Heney received an ovation that eclipsed all his campaign experiences.

However, Heney will not tackle the job of removing the evils of its right name. Heney was the political game as played by "man of the hour."

police protection given the gamblers and dives in Oakland, although Chief Petersen was in the hall, but did not interrupt Heney. The meeting was one of the most enthusiastic ever held in Oakland, and Heney did not hesitate to mention names nor deviate from calling a spade by its right name. Heney was the International Typographical Union, came over from San Francisco Tuesday evening and a special meeting of the typos was held in the News office, the object being to segregate from the up-county towns and form a separate body in Richmond bearing the exclusive name of this city. The organization when formed and sanctioned by the International at Indianapolis will receive its charter and be independent of any other towns in Contra Costa county.

Church Members Send Clothing

Members of Martinez Congregational Church sent a 220-pound box of clothing to the California Indians in Modoc county last week. Like the Belgians, so, the poor Indian, is in need, and the clothing sent will be highly appreciated by the Modocs, who have zero weather and a rigorous climate to withstand during the winter months. The Martinez church members believe in taking care of the needy at home first.

Alameda Official After Delinquents

Now that the poll tax is knocked out and California is among the progressive states that has abandoned this relic there is much comment on the activity in the Alameda county assessor's office in collecting the iniquitous and unfair tax from delinquents, and especially from the home owner who is in modest circumstances. Is it because the assessor's conscience has become "quicken?" after Mr. Heney's Piedmont Pavilion mass-meeting last Friday night when the later gave the Oakland boss and his lieutenants a fine trimming, that the assessor, after election, is after the delinquent poll tax due from owners of homes, who are not yet exempt under the law? Could this be termed "good politics," or "petty graft?"

"How to Live a Century," Was Doctor's Theme

Dr. C. E. Barker, formerly physical adviser to ex-President Taft, entertained an audience Tuesday night in Berkeley High School auditorium on the theme, "How to Live a Hundred Years." He dwelt on the general care of the body, and emphasized the importance of deep breathing, slow eating and the necessity of exercise as a means of keeping the body constantly prepared to ward off disease.

We Lead as Oil Producing Country

The United States has in 50 years produced 3,060,691,605 barrels of petroleum. Russia comes next with 1,553,314,419 barrels.

The United States in 1914 produced 218,146,320 barrels of 12 gallons each of oil. Russia 60,935,183 barrels. Mexico has made wonderful strides as an oil producing country, and ranks third, her output for 1913 being 25,606,291 barrels. Mexico has only been producing oil ten years. Other producing oil countries are Romania, Italy, Canada, Galicia, Japan, Germany, India, Dutch East Indies, and Peru.

Martin Kelly's Window Display

Martin Kelly, the realty dealer, has a display of fresh vegetables in his show window at Eleventh and Macdonald that should be placed on exhibition at the Panama-Pacific exposition. Martin brought the specimens from the San Joaquin valley, not far from Merced. One sugar beet weighs 10 pounds, and this was not a freak beet, but just one of the ordinary every day beets that require a stump puller to extract them from the ground. A pumpkin that nearly fills the window and weighs 170 pounds is the main attraction. And still, people here do not think much about the productivity of the soil. But if this window display was in Chicago, the street would be blockaded with people curious to see the wonders of California.

Typo Organizer Visits Richmond

Geo. E. Mitchell, organizer for the International Typographical Union, came over from San Francisco Tuesday evening and a special meeting of the typos was held in the News office, the object being to segregate from the up-county towns and form a separate body in Richmond bearing the exclusive name of this city. The organization when formed and sanctioned by the International at Indianapolis will receive its charter and be independent of any other towns in Contra Costa county.

Wedding Bells.

One of the notable weddings of the past week took place Saturday afternoon in the First Congregational Church of Berkeley, when the marriage ceremony of Miss Mildred Stokes and William G. Muschier was performed.

Miss Stokes is a daughter of the well-known manager of the New Richmond Land Company, and Mr. Muschier is an employee of the Santa Fe. Only intimate friends were present at the ceremony, the wedding party leaving Richmond in automobiles. The newly-weds are spending their honeymoon in the south. On returning to Richmond they will take apartments at 433 Tenth street.

Business Is Picking Up, Says a Local Banker of City

State Federation Re- Elects M. W. Truitt

The State Realty Association which closed a three days' session at Hotel Oakland Saturday, was one of the most interesting ever held by the association. Local realty dealer, M. W. Truitt, was re-elected director. W. G. Swan, of Modesto, was elected president, and Dr. Geo. S. Pitcock, of Stockton, was re-elected secretary and treasurer. The convention was well attended, the delegations from San Jose and Los Angeles adding much to the interest of the session. The Los Angeles bunch were accompanied by a band. The San Jose delegation closed their offices in the Garden City at noon and came in a body via automobiles.

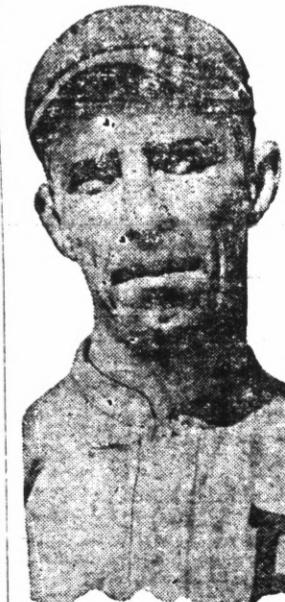

Commuters Have Little Inconvenience

The heavy fog Monday morning was the cause of a head on collision between two street cars on the Grand Canyon line which is being used by main line cars this week during the repairing of Pullman avenue. Motorman Brink was severely injured, the cars telescoping and splintering, causing an ugly wreck. Strange to say, there were no fatalities.

Union Thanks At Calvary

The churches all united in giving thanks at Calvary Baptist church yesterday. The sermon was delivered by Rev. Dr. E. M. Bliss, of Berkeley, acting pastor of First Church.

Hank Gowdy Is Not Handsome, But He Starred in World Series

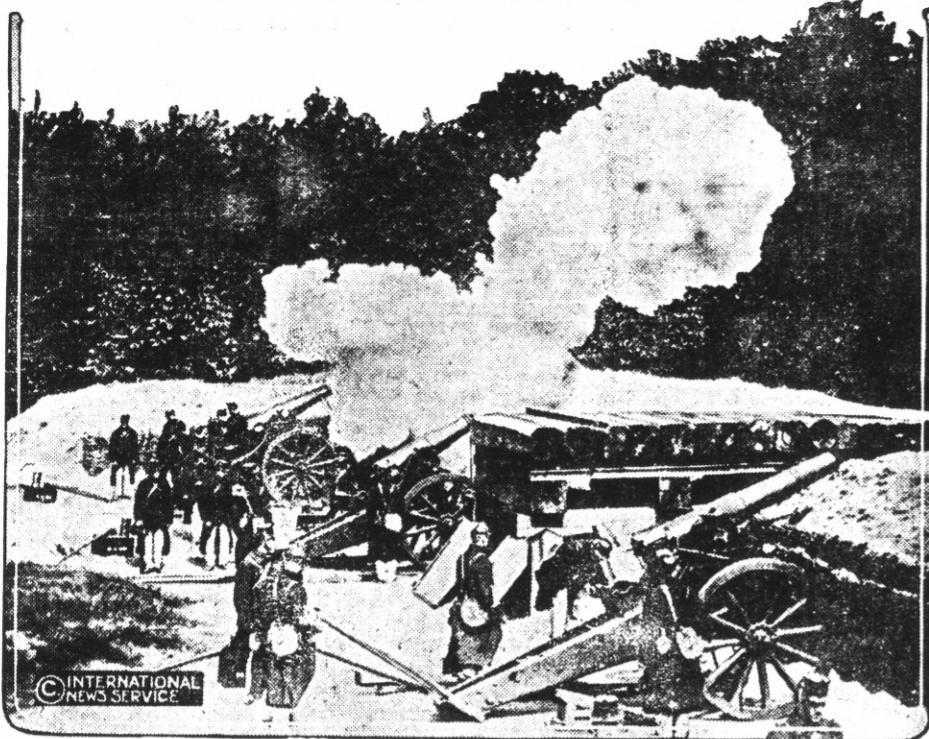

"There is one player who is generally overlooked by the fans when they are looking for reasons for the great spirit of the Boston Braves. That is Hank Gowdy. There are other stars in the club, there must be in every winning club, but to my way of thinking the man who has done the most to make the club a consistent winner is Gowdy. With steady work he has improved wonderfully, and I now consider him to be the best catcher in the National league."

Old Time Drop Kickers.
A few men this season have won fame for themselves by scoring for their teams with drop kicks of fifty yards and under. Any warrior who is fairly certain to put the ball between the posts from thirty yards away is considered a great asset to his team. Yet Pat O'Dea of Wisconsin once scored by a drop kick of sixty-three yards against Northwestern, and anywhere within the fifty yard line his accuracy was deadly. Maxall of Princeton in 1882, while standing sixty-five yards away from the Yale goal posts and fifteen yards to the side of center, counted against the Blue with a place kick. Eckersall of Chicago and Brooke of Pennsylvania were others of a long list of drop kickers who proved their prowess in days gone by.

Fifty Mile Record Broken.
It is thirty one years since the United States has seen a fifty mile run for amateurs. Milwaukee held a grueling of that distance recently, and it was won by a Greek named Kallas from Chicago. His time was 6 hours 18 minutes 3 seconds, and is a new American record. The former mark was 7 hours 20 minutes 47 seconds, by Peter Galvin, the old six day "ped." When Peter made this record he was on Feb. 22, 1883, on the grounds of the old Williamsburg A. C.

BELGIAN BATTERY AT ANTWERP IN ACTION

LOSSES VERY HEAVY ON BOTH SIDES IN FRONTAL ATTACKS

Berlin (via Romé).—Apparently no decision has been reached in the great eastern battle which is being fought in the territory between the Warta and the Vistula rivers, although Berlin is filled with rumors of a great victory. No authentic private information is available. The official reports continue to register a succession of tactical successes which may form the basis of a decisive victory.

General von Hindenburg and Archduke Charles Francis of Austria seem to have accepted battle along a line highly favorable strategically to pressing home a central attack against the enemy. The roads in the Russians' rear are in a wretched state, the Germans having accomplished a thorough

BRITISH BIRD MEN FAIL IN RAID ON ZEPPELIN WORKS

Friedrichshafen, Germany (via Berlin, The Hague and London).—Elaborate precautions which the Germans have taken for an emergency were responsible for the failure of the raid of three English aviators who swooped down upon this city to drop bombs upon the Zeppelin balloon works. Anti-aeroplane cannon and machine guns adapted to high angle fire defeated the accomplishment of the daring exploit and succeeded in bringing down one of the hostile machines and putting the others to flight.

One of the flyers made a fearless attempt to cross the hall at a height of only a quarter of a mile. Bullets from the guns mounted on the tops of buildings, however, pierced the aeroplane's gasoline tank, causing the fuel to escape and forcing the pilot to attempt to glide to earth. During the descent of the machine, the aviator, a lieutenant of the British Royal Naval Air Service named Briggs, threw two or three more bombs at the hangar, but they missed their mark and did no damage.

The lieutenant, on reaching the ground, defended himself with a revolver, but was captured after receiving a slight wound in the head. The point where the aeroplane landed was only 300 feet from the Zeppelin hall.

DECLARE AMERICANS SHOULD COME FIRST

Sacramento.—The directors of the Sacramento Valley Development Association, representing about a dozen northern counties, refused to give assistance to the California Development Board's plan to bring Belgians to California for colonization purposes unless the same inducements for leasing or tilling the land are extended to Americans, principally Californians. The stand was taken on the ground that help first should be extended Americans before given foreigners.

Town Built Over Gold Mine

Grass Valley.—That gold ore which assays $527.99 per ton is being taken from beneath the feet of the people of this town, is the information given out by the high officials of the Golden Center of Grass Valley Mining Company. The workings of this company are directly under the city, and it is stated that strikes of marvelous richness have recently been made at the 700-foot level.

Record Yield of Potatoes

Willow Valley.—Three tons of fine potatoes from a quarter of an acre of land is the record made by J. W. Lewis of this section, this season. Lewis, who comes here from one of the noted agricultural regions of Washington a few years ago, states that twelve tons of potatoes per acre is the record yield so far as he can learn.

WEATHER IS FREEZING ALONG LINE OF BATTLE

Paris.—Freezing weather has set in throughout the length of the battle zone in France and Belgium, the temperature varying between twenty-five and twenty-eight degrees above zero Fahrenheit. Snow is falling, especially in Northern France and the Vosges mountains and also at Marseilles.

The French soldier wears a woolen band provided by the government, which he wraps four or five times around his body. He also often wears four or five shirts, adding an extra one from time to time as the temperature falls.

GERMANS HOPE TO BE IN CALAIS DECEMBER 10

Rotterdam.—German officers on the Dutch frontier confidently declare that Calais will be occupied on December 10th.

Eighty big guns were sent from the Krupp works at Essen to the northern battle ground in France.

Seven thousand troops, mostly engineers, have left Liege for Dixmude. They carried much material for pontoon bridges. They are to be employed to cope with difficulties in flooded fields.

COTTON MAY BE LUCRATIVE CROP IN SUTTER COUNTY

Yuba City.—Experiments with cotton in Sutter county have proved that in the irrigated districts there are great possibilities for this product. It is believed that as a result of this discovery within the next few years this county will produce a big commercial crop of cotton.

It has been found that the Durango long staple, which has proved successful in the Imperial valley, thrives remarkably well in this county. This variety has been planted in various parts of the irrigated districts, although not in commercial quantities, as an experiment, and has proved highly successful.

Rock Crusher Installed

Bakersfield.—The capacity of the rock crusher to be operated at Keene by the Kern County Highway Commission for the construction of the $2,500,000 highway system will be 1,000 tons of rock a day. The machinery is nearly all installed, and the electric company is now building nine miles of transmission line to supply power for the dynamo. A track conveyor system is also being installed.

Strict Neutrality in Canal Zone

Panama.—Strict orders have been issued to preserve neutrality through out the Panama canal zone. Hereafter information will be given to any one relative to the cargoes carried by the ships using the waterway and entering the terminal ports.

OFFICIALS INVESTIGATE NEUTRALITY VIOLATION

Delivery of Sacramento's Cargo to German Ship Under Probe

San Francisco—Collector of the Port John O. Davis has begun a searching investigation into the delivery of the cargo of the steamer Sacramento to German warships in Chilean waters. The Collector declares he will go to the bottom of the matter and learn if possible who is responsible for the violation of neutrality reported from Valparaiso.

Davis says he does not believe that a German cruiser would halt the Sacramento on the high seas and force her to give up her cargo. That would be an act of piracy and out of the question for any German commander. Admiral Charles F. Pond, in command of the Twelfth naval district, was equally frank in saying that the entire transaction involving the Sacramento was a suspicious one from the beginning.

Comment along the water front was chiefly composed of "I told you so's." The opinion was generally expressed by shipping men when the Sacramento sailed that her cargo would never reach the street railroad company in Valparaiso to which it was consigned, but that it would land on board the Kaiser's war dogs.

U. S. TROOPS LEAVE PORT OF VERA CRUZ

Mexican Factions Left Free to Settle Their Own Troubles

Washington.—Brigadier General Fenton's infantry and marines, numbering about 6000, under orders from President Wilson, hauled down the Stars and Stripes which have been flying over Vera Cruz since Rear-Admiral Fletcher seized that port last April as an act of reprisal in retaliation for affronts to the American flag at Tamayo, after General Huerta had refused to comply with a demand by Rear-Admiral Mayo for a salute of twenty-one guns.

Advises from Mexico continued to be confusing, but it is the determination of the United States Government to withdraw its forces and thereby remove a possible cause of international friction as well as a potential factor that might become a domestic issue as between the two factions in Mexico.

President Wilson is hopeful the withdrawal will be an enduring demonstration to Central and South American countries of the sincerity of the policy of the United States to seek no territorial aggrandizement south of the Rio Grande.

Pains have been taken that in the withdrawal no faction shall be recognized.

Highbinder Hits the Mark

Fresno.—An unknown Chinese walked into a store in Chinatown and fired six shots at a patron of the place, Lee Gou, four of the shots taking effect. Two were fatal. The murderer escaped.

Tampa, Fla.—The steamer Mildred, plying between Tampa and Fort Myers, was sunk in collision with the schooner Brabos, off Edmund Key.

WRECK OF COASTER COSTS MANY LIVES

Steamer Hanalei Goes to Pieces on Duxbury Reef With Loss of Half On Board

San Francisco—The steamer Hanalei of the Independent Steamship Company, bound here from Eureka, having on board 28 passengers and a ship's company of 30 hands, drove into the rock-studded shoals nine miles north of the Golden Gate Monday, and the fog and sea exacted a terrible toll.

Thirty survivors reached the shore on pieces of wreckage or were picked up by the revenue cutter McCullough. One by one they struggled through the surf until shortly after dawn Tuesday morning, when the terrific pounding of the waves broke up the old craft and she went to pieces.

Twenty-eight had perished of the 58 who were aboard the Hanalei as passengers and crew.

All night long the life-saving crews from the vicinity fought to save the lives of those on the wrecked ship. Lines from a huge mortar rushed by auto from San Francisco, were shot again and again, but not one landed on the doomed vessel in such a way as to aid. Finally Captain Nelson of the Golden Gate Life-saving station abandoned the effort after the wireless man on the Hanalei had ticked out:

"Goodbye. The Hanalei is breaking up."

All along the beach life-savers and hundreds of persons from Bolinas scoured the shore all night scanning the waves for the sign of a head or an arm which would tell that another piece of human jetsam was fighting for land and life through the breakers.

By sun-up nearly a score of the Hanalei's passengers and crew had reached shore on rafts and spars. Some of them were too far gone to be revived, and died on the shore when their bodies were pulled out of the waves. Others were dead when their bodies touched the beach. Some were saved by the revenue cutter McCullough.

TREMENDOUS WASTAGE OF HORSES ON BATTLEFIELDS

London.—We are just beginning to hear now of the tremendous wastage of horses in this war. It has been to an extent altogether unexpected a cavalry war and a war of a kind that is uncommonly hard on horses. The German cavalry has been seriously crippled, I am told, and our own remount department is scouring the world for fresh sources of supply. One officer with whom I talked the other day estimated that on an average each trooper had used up three horses since the beginning of the war. He himself had lost four horses.

PREPARATIONS MADE FOR HEAVY CHRISTMAS MAIL

Washington.—Postmaster-General Burleson cleared the way for Santa Claus by ordering all offices in the service to prepare immediately for quick distribution of the "largest bulk of Christmas mail handled in the history of the Postoffice Department."

The postmasters were directed to appeal to the public to mail their holiday parcels early. Packages may bear the inscription "not to be opened until Christmas."

Race Horses Burn to Death

Augusta, Ga.—Fifteen valuable trotting horses were burned to death when the F. L. Dodge racing stables near here were destroyed. Among the horses burned were Silk Hat, Lady Wanet and Hollywood Ben. The total damage is estimated at $150,000.

Life Imprisonment for Robber

Roseburg, Ore.—Life imprisonment is the sentence meted out to Ray Bunch, who confessed that he robbed Frank Kuhn, an aged farmer, after torturing him into revealing the hiding place of his money.

Washington.—Secretary Daniels issued an official edict on the question of spelling. He announced that it had been decided that the official spelling of the type of battleship now being built for the United States Navy should be "dreadnaught."

Pains have been taken that in the withdrawal no faction shall be recognized.

DISCOVERY OF COAGULEN BY SWISS SURGEON MAY SAVE LIFE

Geneva, Switzerland.—A preparation which, it is said, will stop almost instantly the flow of blood from a wound, has been invented by Prof. Theodore Kocher, of Berne, who was awarded the Nobel prize for surgery in 1912, and his assistant, Dr. A. Fonce. The new preparation is called coagulen.

It is in the form of a powder and is dissolved in water before being applied to a wound. The discoverers of coagulen have made a gift of their invention to the armies in the field and have sent large quantities of the powder to the surgical headquarters of both the German and French armies.

The discovery is regarded by medical men here as likely to save the lives of thousands of soldiers, since it can be applied by untrained hands, so that the wounded man himself or his comrades might use the solution.

CARNAGE LACKING IN GAME

Thanksgiving Contest Played Without Single Player Being Disabled Was Not Football.

Clarence Alcott, the Yale coach, comforted a slightly injured half back, on the side lines at New Haven, with football story.

"Once upon a time," said Alcott, patting the brawny shoulder of the sufferer, "there was a wonderful Thanksgiving day game between two great varsities."

"This game was played almost faultlessly. The interest was maintained to the very end. Star play succeeded star play with the precision of clock-work. But—

"Not a man was disabled. Not a single doctor was called out. Not a nose was broken, not a tooth loosened, not a drop of blood dyed the ground."

"The spectators, at the end of this phenomenal game, shook their heads and sighed."

"It was magnificent," they said, "but it was not football."—Boston Post.

The Best of Them All.

"You are taking a good deal of interest in horse racing of late," said one traveling man to another.

"Yes."

"I suppose you are well posted as to all the different styles of gait."

"Pretty well. I ought to be."

"Well, of them all, what do you think is the best?"

"Well, as a man of experience, I'll tell you: The best of all is the old front gate, at 9:30 in the evening, with the little black-eyed girl on the other side of it."—Merchant Traveler.

FROM THE SWEET POTATO

Innumerable "Goodies" May Be Made by the Housewife Who Gives It a Little Thought.

For candied sweet potatoes cut parboiled sweet potatoes into lengthwise slices and put them in buttered pan. Cook for two minutes three-quarters of a cupful of water and two tablespoons of butter. Brush the potatoes with this and bake them. Baste them with the syrup as they cook until they are well candied.

Sweet potato balls that cause surprise are these: Season two cupfuls of baked sweet potatoes that have been pressed through a colander with salt and pepper and add a beaten egg and a little hot cream. Form into balls and into each press a pitted prune into which two walnut meats have been forced. This prune should not be visible. Dip the balls into crumbs and egg. Then brown the potato balls in deep fat, drain and serve at once.

Scalloped sweet potatoes are made by slicing parboiled potatoes into a battered baking dish and covering them with a well-seasoned white sauce. On top of the sauce put some melted butter and crumbs and bake for about twenty minutes.

French fried sweet potatoes are truly a delicacy. To make them, cut in thick lengthwise sections some parboiled sweet potatoes and plunge them in a frying basket, into deep hot fat. Brown delicately, drain and season with salt.

NOVELTY IN THRILLS

Wrecking of Trolley Car Is Something Unique.

Here Moving Picture Designers Have Produced a Truly Exciting Scene—Profit Shown in the Renting of Films.

One of the most exciting scenes in motion pictures is contained in "A Prince of India." To inject the necessary "thrill" deemed essential by all producers for "movie" plays, the director of this melodrama resorted to the unique expedient of wrecking a trolley car.

In the average modern "thriller" the villain invariably finds a waiting automobile or one within easy halting distance to convey him from the scene of his misdeed to safety. But here is developed a different situation. The villain, escaping with some precious booty, fails to see any motor car, but finds a convenient trolley car, without passengers, conductor or motorman. He immediately boards it and, turning on the power, dashes away, barely in time to escape his pursuing victim. The latter, however, is not to be balked so easily. Meeting some friends in a powerful automobile, he induces them to take him in and pursue the robber.

The chase which follows is indeed thrilling. When the automobile catches up with the trolley car the pursuer leaps from it on the running board of the speeding street car and a fight between the thief and his victim follows while the car is in flight. When it reaches a trestle, the car suddenly jumps the track, veers, crashes through a railing and is precipitated headlong 50 feet to the gorge below, to its utter destruction. The villain is presumed to have been killed in the wreck, but his victim, fortunately, leaped from the car before it reached the trestle, taking with him the stolen property which he had recovered in the struggle.

Never Touched Him.

The Bill Collector—I can't keep coming here every day for this bill.

Mr. I. M. P. Cunius—I've often wondered why you didn't try to get a better position.

Art's Unkindness.

"My farewell appearance was an occasion of the greatest enthusiasm," said one prima donna.

"Yes," replied the other. "Isn't it remarkable that such a large number of people should have seemed so delighted to hear you for the last time?"

Pity.

"Why don't you lay by something for rainy day?"

"I have."

"Huh! I'd like to know how much?"

"One dollar. And the latest quota ion umbrellas is 98 cents."

In Society.

"I got in bad at that London prize fight."

"How was that?"

"I hadn't noticed who was sitting next to me and tried to borrow a chew of tobacco from a duchess."

The Right One.

"You say there is wine and bark in this tonic you are recommending?"

"Yes."

"All right. Then I am going to try it on the dog."

Injured in Auto Accident.

William Humphrey of the Vitagraph players was injured in an automobile accident at Asbury Park, N. J. Mrs. Humphrey, who accompanied him, was seriously injured, having three broken and suffering internal injuries. Their machine skidded and turned turtle on the sandy beach and Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey were caught underneath.

MOVIES TO AID DETECTIVES

New York Police Commissioner Will Henceforth Use Films in Identifying Criminals.

Before resigning as second deputy police commissioner of New York, J. Robert Rubin, who had charge of reorganizing the detective bureau, arranged for the use of moving pictures in connection with criminal identification.

The system, which is considered of special value in training new detectives, is expected to be in operation on a small scale in a short time, and if funds are voted it may be extended throughout the city and eventually to police administrations in other cities.

"With younger men constantly replacing the old detectives we believe that the moving pictures will soon be an important factor in police work," Mr. Rubin said. "Its first application is planned in connection with the line-up.

"At present much time is lost by detectives who have to attend the line-up, but with the movies the films can be displayed at any time in headquarters or at division stations.

"As New York headquarters is practically the clearing house for all criminal investigations, detectives and police officials coming from other cities could see a procession of crooks or suspects on the canvas and in many cases identification undoubtedly would follow."

FAMILIAR TO "MOVIE" FANS

Despite Necessary Make-Up, Audiences as a General Rule Recognize Favorite Actor.

As an exponent of character acting Rex Downs, with the Kalem company, has made himself a pronounced favorite with moving picture audiences everywhere. Though the nature of his roles makes it necessary for him to Films Rent for $40 a Day.

A popular feature film generally rents for $40 a day, while it is new and fresh, and from twenty-five to thirty-five prints are sent out. That means a gross return of from $1,000 a day, or from $7,000 to $9,000 a week.

The life of the average feature film is about three months (at a lesser rental during the last month). So it is easy to see that the gross return is very large. Some films, such as Hackett in "The Prisoner of Zenda," or "Rainey Hunt," have continued popular for more than a year, fresh prints being made.

The copyright laws are still lax and rather chaotic concerning motion pictures, and the Authors' League of America is working better to protect authors whose books and stories are used for films, since a popular book often makes as good a movie drama as a play. But these conditions will doubtless be corrected and it may be said that the author and perhaps the dramatist of the immediate future, if he writes the kind of books or plays which have interesting plots, and especially if the scenes can be put into pictorial setting, will have a new source of revenue from the motion pictures.—Walter Pritchard Eaton, in the American Magazine.

assume some fearful and wonderful make-up the spectators of the many successes in which he has appeared probably recognize him by the excellence of his acting. Among his successes may be mentioned the parts of Fernandez in "At the End of the Rope," Lieutenant French in "Grey Eagle's Revenge," and Harding in "Kidnapped by Indians."

New Idea in "Godmothering."

"Dear miss kathlyn I have a new persian cat will you please name it for me."

This is from an epistle, evidently written with careful pains by a very young miss of Los Angeles. There are all kinds of lovable mistakes and appealing blots in the letter. Miss Williams has replied to the writer stating that, as the sex of the Persian kitten was omitted, it would require a little time and consideration to hit upon a strictly neutral title.

"A baby has been named after me," said the gracious actress, in showing the letter; "but this is the first time I have been asked to play godmother to a cat."

Train Beasts for the Movies.

A private dramatic school for trained wild animals for moving picture exhibitions has been established near Fort Lee, N. J. The apartment where the pictures are made is equipped with all the appointments necessary for a proper stage performance, and in a large menagerie adjoining the studio are the caged animals, which are taken out for daily rehearsals. Remarkable success attends the training of these beasts, which rarely attempt to harm the human actors who are engaged with them. Indeed, no person has thus far been injured in the school.

Studio Removed From Rome.

A report emanating from the Klein offices says the Cines company has moved several important stock companies from its studio in Rome to foreign countries, where they will become immediately active and produce some pretentious film plays. This move is occasioned by the mobilization of military forces, which has been disturbing the Italian producers. Lyda Borelli left with a cast of players for Brazil, while Miss Francesca Bertini, heading another company, has embarked for the Riviera, France.

Changes Character Parts.

Charles Ray is taking the lead in the photo play, "Not of the Flock," being produced by Scott Sydney, and End Markey is playing opposite him. For the second time in his connection with the pictures Mr. Ray is taking the part of a clergyman, and it is something of a change after the warlike character he played last. He makes a good looking minister.

Film Secures Praise of Critics.

The film version of Wilson Barrett's play, "The Sign of the Cross," which was recently filmed by the Famous Players, with William Farnum in the role of Marcus, which has just been released in Great Britain in order to fill bookings obtained as far in advance as last spring, has received unusual praise from all the English trade periodicals.

Made Her Way by Merit.

Lillian Brown Leighton, noted Seelye, rose rapidly in the film firmament from an obscure character role to principal parts. She was the attractive widow in "The Decision of Jim O'Farrell," and then took a prominent part in "Oh! Look Who's Here" and "When a Woman's Forty." Miss Leighton was the blundering washerwoman in the "Red Head" series. At present she is a member of the comedy company at Selig's Jungle studio.

What has become of Sam Shortridge?

This is a closed season for title hunting by America heiresses.

Heney was second man in the race for United Senator. He led Knowland by more than 4,000 votes.

The Standard says that George Meese is the De Wolf Hopper of Martinez, and can hold his own with the original.

Heney has started the ball rolling. He calls it by its right name—"graft"—and says that Oakland is "saturated" with it.

Most everybody likes a little free puff in the home paper, but how few ever think to acknowledge their appreciation to the editors.—Heacock, in Brighton (Iowa) Enterprise.

After Monday every person making shipments of freight by railroads must pay one cent tax. The one cent revenue stamp must be affixed to the bill of lading. You see, "it is on account of the war."

Heney is not afraid. He is a fearless fellow, and not many men are willing to take the stump and make utterances against a city administration as did Heney at the Piedmont pavilion Friday night.

A taxpayers' association has been organized in Richmond, the object of which is to guard against the extravagant expenditure of the people's money. Petitions are being circulated against the tax rate of the city. Headquarters have been established next door to the postoffice on Sixth street.

James D. Phelan had a campaign manager that knew his business. He is a newspaperman and knew the value of newspaper publicity and how to use it effectively. The result was that the tene and telephone pole advertising of his competitor had little influence upon the voters. Phelan being a newspaperman himself, believes in the efficiency of printer's ink in newspaper form—it produces the required results. Newspaper advertising is more dignified than the dead wall publicity, is more convincing and less expensive. It is said that Shortridge burnt up $25,000 in dead wall advertising.

Berkeley citizens are receiving unpleasant shocks on receipt of their tax bills this year. The advance over a year ago is a stiff one. The new charter that Berkeley has adopted is said to be the cause, which gives the Board of Supervisors power to penalize by levying whatever tax is asked for in maintaining public school expense. The latter is increasing by "leaps and bounds." Under Berkeley's old charter a tax levy of 25 cents provided for all the schools, high and low. This tax on the 1914 bills is 72 cents, an increase of 188 per cent, nearly three-fold. Protests seem to be futile, and the Berkeley taxpayer is groaning under the load. The only remedy is to amend the charter.

TAKES MONEY.

JUST THE SAME.

If our local business men give their stock away free of cost, they would be suspected of being demented. But on the other hand, if a newspaperman expects a reasonable amount of pay for advertising space—his stock in trade—he is thoroughly crazy. See the difference, if one gives his wares free; he is non compos mentis, and if the other don't give it free, he is non compos mentis also. Maybe newspaper publishers ain't supposed to eat like other business men, but money makes the press go around, just as love makes the world go around.—Daily City Tatler.

I'LL SHOW 'EM, DURN 'EM.

I've stopped the paper, yes I have,

I didn't like to do it, But the editor he got too smart, And I allow he'll rue it.

I am a man who pays his debts, And will not be insulted, So when the editor gets smart I want to be consulted.

I took the paper 'leven years

And help him all I could sir,

But when it come to durnin' me

I didn't think he would, sir,

But that he did, and you can bet

I made me hot as thunder;

I says, "I'll stop that sheet, I will,

If the doggone thing goes under."

I hunted up the editor

And for his cunnin' caper

I paid him 'LEVEN years and quit!

Yes, sir, I stopped the paper.

—Exchange.

YOUNG FOLKS' CORNER

Christmas a Time For Peace.

In almost every large family one member—almost always a girl and ever the best beloved—from nursery days pouts off on troubled waters and smooths the rough edges of diverse temperaments, so that they weld together in unity in a way that but for the peacemaker's gentle influence they never could do. With such a nature to see the good that lies hidden in all men is an instinct, and because perfect understanding gives perfect sympathy the born peacemaker owns a power that none can withstand.

It is not given to all to be able to even follow in her footsteps, but the Christmas bells will ring a more joyful peal in many, many ears if every girl reader will only resolve to be an angel of peace this Yuletide.

"Forget" and "forgive" are such easy words to say at Christmas time. The little tiffs and misunderstandings of the past year seem so trivial when looked at through the rose colored glasses of the festive season. It only needs a little angel of peace to make opportunity for reconciliation, a tactful, loving word at the right moment. It's so easy.
